

Member Contact Cheat Sheet

A quick guide to government contacts, neighborhood groups, business resources and safety

1. Find Your Government Representatives

Uptown spans more than one City Council ward. Members should look up their exact business address before contacting a council office.

Find your ward and council member: <https://www.minneapolismn.gov/government/city-council/find-my-ward/>

City Council

Ward 10 — Aisha Chughtai

Phone: 612-673-2210 | Email: ward10@minneapolismn.gov

Website: <https://www.minneapolismn.gov/government/city-council/members/ward-10/>

Ward 7 — Elizabeth Shaffer

Phone: 612-673-2207 | Email: elizabeth.shaffer@minneapolismn.gov

Website: <https://www.minneapolismn.gov/government/city-council/members/ward-7/>

What council members can help with: city policy, street construction concerns, zoning and land use, public safety priorities, and connecting businesses with City departments.

2. Neighborhood Organizations

Neighborhood organizations are separate from the Uptown Association. They organize neighborhood engagement, community activities, local projects, and resident input. The correct organization depends on the business address.

- East Isles Neighborhood Association
- Lowry Hill East Neighborhood Association (The Wedge)
- Lowry Hill Neighborhood Association
- South Uptown Neighborhood Association
- East Bde Maka Ska Neighborhood Association
- And more

Find the organization for your address: <https://www.minneapolismn.gov/resident-services/neighborhoods/neighborhood-organizations/>

3. Public Safety Contacts

Minneapolis Police Department — 5th Precinct

Phone: 612-673-5705

Address: 3101 Nicollet Avenue S., Minneapolis

Website: <https://www.minneapolismn.gov/government/departments/police/precincts/precinct-5/>

Contact the precinct about recurring concerns, crime patterns, and coordination with officers. Confirm the correct precinct for your business address.

Crime Prevention Specialists

Crime prevention specialists provide safety education and help connect businesses and residents with police resources. Find current contacts through the Minneapolis Police Department:

<https://www.minneapolismn.gov/government/departments/police/>

Uptown Security and Ambassadors
